

To comply with new federal child care requirements
All child care staff must complete training in 10 health and safety topics by September 2017

- | | | | | | | | | | |
|-------------------------------------|--|------------------------------------|---|--|--|----------------------------------|------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1
Administering medicines | 2
Building and physical safety | 3
Emergency preparedness | 4
Food and allergic reactions | 5
Handling hazardous materials | 6
Controlling infectious disease | 7
Safe sleep practices | 8
Preventing head trauma | 9
Transporting children | 10
First aid and CPR |
|-------------------------------------|--|------------------------------------|---|--|--|----------------------------------|------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------|

To meet this new requirement, staff may

Beginning September 30, 2016, Child Care Certification Representatives will begin reviewing your progress in taking training on these 10 health and safety topics and help you develop a plan to complete them by September 2017.

For more information, contact your Regional Office of Child Development and Early Learning

Western Region (412) 565-5183 (800) 222-2149	Central Region (717) 772-7078 (800) 222-2117	Southeast Region (215) 560-2541 (800) 346-2929	Northeast Region (570) 963-4371 (800) 222-2108
--	--	--	--

or visit www.pakeys.org

